

Executive / Leadership Team Alignment.

High performing leadership teams don't often occur naturally. We would like to think that this is always an organic result when we work so closely together. However, it is often not the case. In today's uncertain future with the challenges facing business, having a planned strategy that is executed with care and compassion is key.

At Change Innovators, we possess proven methods and strategies to assist our clients in unparalleled positive transformation grounded in individual and group coaching and learning that is tailored to each leader and team.

Working with the team and main sponsor we begin by identifying the key areas for improved effectiveness. We then meet individually in confidential developmental coaching sessions. This is complimented with group coaching and facilitated learning.

Building authenticity and honesty with kindness and care!

Our accredited coaches and trainers facilitate each session with care and compassion. A deep understanding of the opportunities for enhanced performance is key.

This customized coaching initiative includes:

- Identification of desired improvements
- Customized group learning based upon needs
- One-on-one developmental coaching each month for each leader
- Group coaching

➤ Journey to enhanced leadership teams

Once a month face-to-face coaching and learning focused on individualized needs and team results

Strategic Approach to team effectiveness that is both individualized yet built on a foundation of common goals and team capacity

WHAT PARTICIPANTS SAY:

"This has made a significant difference in how our team interact together. We are more collaborative and supportive of each other. We listen much more intensely and work towards a common goal. The silos have softened, and the One-Team approach is very evident".

WHO BENEFITS:

Executive Teams looking to be high performing in all areas of business

Executives looking to better understand their impact on others and the team overall

Teams aiming for stronger cohesion, direction and empowered decision-making.

Individuals looking for improved well-being, motivation, personal growth and happiness.
